On August 4, 1989, 104 drums of drill cuttings accumulated during a 1985 site inspection of the Pasco Sanitary Landfill (Resource Recovery) were disposed of into the landfill. On October 12, 1989, the 27 remaining drums of purge and development water, were emptied into the Pasco Sanitary sewer system with the permission of Harold Posthuma, Superintendent of the sewer system. The 27 empty drums were then dumped into the Pasco Sanitary Landfill. This completes the disposal of all investigation-derived waste stored at the Pasco Sanitary Landfill.
